I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you, And am sir, yours respectfully, J. F. CALHOUN, of South Carolina. The following was one of the worst of cases, which the Physicians and friends thought to be incurable consumption:

Chester, Pa., Aug. 22, 1846. J. C. Ayer,-Sir! I was taken with a terrible cough, brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last February, and was confined to my bed more than two months. Coughing incessantly night Castings, Nails, Blacksmith's, Carpen- and day, I became glastly and pale, my eyes were sunken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath, that but little hope of my re-covery could be entertained. While in this sityour CHERRY PECTORAL, which I tried more to gratify him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to coutinue its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to our great medicine.

With the deepest gratitude, yours, &c., JAMES GODFREY. PREPARED AND SOLD BY JAS. C. AYER, Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass. For sale by JAS. BLAIR,

DR. TOWNSEND'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla The Mest Extraordinary Medicine in he World, to their improvements during the past winter, This Extract is put up in Quart Botles; it is si times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures diseases without vomiting, perging, sickening or debilitating the Patient.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaarilla over all other medicines is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. It is one from the Bigbee river in Choctaw County, Ala., of the very best Spring and Summer medicines in as healthy a region as can be found in the ever known; it not only purifies the whole system southern country, and are necessible at all sea- and strengthens the person, but it creates new, sons of the year by Steam Boats.
